

January 25, 2007

For immediate release:

Winner named in First Annual Blue Panther Game Design Contest, Receives Free Wooden Prototype of Their Game

Blue Panther LLC announces the winner of the first annual BP Game Design Contest: Kevin Lanzing. The title of Kevin's design is "Tako Judo" – The Timeless Sport of Octopus Wrestling. A total of ten highly detailed and impressive entries from three countries were received on a wide range of game themes and mechanics, but Tako Judo "squirted" past them to win.

Kevin will receive a custom, high quality wooden prototype of Tako Judo, including all game components, rulebooks and wooden box, complements of Blue Panther LLC.

Game designers are encouraged to look out for the second Blue Panther game contest coming soon.

Blue Panther LLC is a publisher of board and card games, and a provider of prototyping services and custom components to the board game industry. All Blue Panther games are made of 100% wooden components and play in one hour or less. Current titles include Cambridge, Central Pacific, Courtyard, Extreme!, Duck Duck Boom!, Sand Castles and YangTzee. Info at www.bluepantherllc.com

Contact: steve@bluepantherllc.com